A GREAT PRINTING PRESS.—The New York correspondent of the North American, says:—

I have this day seen the plan of a printing machine, to be built for the Tribune establishment by Hoe and Co., which is to far surpass anything ever yet witnessed. You are perhaps aware that with the new fast press of these manufacturers, with four feeders, the N. Y. Sun and the Philadelphia Ledger are now enabled to print from 7000 to 8000 impressions per hour. Besides that, it is to fly its own sheets, thus saving the expense of six fly-boys; and is to be large enough to work the Tribune double and will cut the sheets of itself as they come off. What will next be attempted? Unless, perchance, it be a machine into which you pour bags of paper-rags, which distribute themselves all over town by the help of self-acting news-boys, in the shape of ably edited journals.

AVULSIVE.—We learn from a gentleman who witnessed the frightful casualty, that two men were carried over the Niagara Falls on the American side, Sunday afternoon. They were first seen in a small boat, with a sail set, below Navy Island, and about three-fourths of a mile above the commencement of the rapids. After beating about for a while, and endeavoring to extricate themselves by the aid of oars, they were swept into the midst of the rapids on the Americanside, the sail still standing. Passing down the rapids for a short distance, the boat was submerged in plunging over one of the precipitous descents above the bridge and when it again rose to the surface, one of the men had disappeared. The other was in the boat clinging to the mast with his hat off. Soon swept under the bridge, and a few rods below capsized, and the unfortunate man precipitated into the awful chasm. No further particulars have been learned when our informant left.—Buffalo Express.

COMING STR.—Who's a coming? What's a coming? The pulpit, the press, and the orators of philanthropic progression have been endeavoring to convince the world, for a long time, that there's a good time coming' without specifying the exact date of its arrival. Vocalists have for years been informing us that "Little wae ye a' coming" and negro sermons have been equally vociferous in the announcement that "Pecayune Butler's coming." The promised advent of all these is thrown in the shade by the Globe of this morning announcing that John Van Buren is coming. He telegraphed yesterday that after stirring up the Free Soilers of the Green Mountains, at Montpelier, on the 12th, he would immediately break for the tall timber of Ohio. He will probably be here about next Wednesday, and after holding forth, will spend a week in the State. John, in addition to being the 'son of his father,' is one of the boys and no mistake. He will never die of excessive modesty. He is the individual named in the popular negro melody, 'Yah! yah! Good bye John.' There is nothing of the John Donkey about him notwithstanding, but his style of speaking is said to be essentially Johnsonian.—Cin. Dispatch of 14th.

REPORTED

BY

FOR THE EVANSVILLE JOURNAL.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 18, P. M.

No news of a definite character yet from Ohio. There was two feet water at Pittsburgh today, only.

The prisoners confined in the jail at Dayton, effected their escape on Saturday evening, during the absence of the sheriff and jailer. A man obtained the key of the jail from the petticoat jailer on pretence of seeing a friend, and opened the doors for the prisoners who slid out and decamped.

At a most critical period of the battle of Buena Vista, a soldier, as we learn from Capt. Bragg, raised a loud clear voice the shout "Old Zack is coming!" and that shout, caught up and re-echoed through the army, was equal to a reinforcement of ten thousand men.

We are now in the midst of a crisis in the great Presidential battle. Let the Whig warrior be "Old Zack is coming!" Indeed the glorious old hero is coming, and his name shouted through our ranks, will fill every heart with the spirit of victory.—Louisville Journal.

The mail coach, on the line between Louisville and Vincennes, a few days since upon near the village of Hardinsburgh, on the turnpike, 25 miles from this city, and seriously injured a lady who was a passenger, a resident of Illinois or Missouri.—Albany Bulletin 4th.

CHILLS AND FEVER.—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are one of the best, if not the very best medicine in the world, for the cure of Intermittent Fever, because they exert all their ridding the body of those morbid humors which are the cause not only of all kinds of Fever, but of every malady incident to man. Four or five of said Indian Vegetable Pills, taken every night on going to bed, will, in a short time, make a perfect cure of the most obstinate case of Chills and Fever, at the same time the digestive organs will be restored to a healthy tone, and the blood so completely purified that Fever and Ague, or disease in any form, will be absolutely impossible.

This is to certify, that I was entirely cured of the Chills and Fevers, of several years standing, by the use of four doses, of four pills each, of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, and after taking medicine from a regular physician for some time, and having no symptoms of it since, which has been about one year ago.

DALLEY'S Magical Pain Extractor.

More proofs that Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor is best Medicine in the world. Every day is demonstrating the matchless virtues of this article. Letters are coming to us from all parts of the Union expressing gratitude and surprise at the wonderful cures effected in all cases of burns, rheumatism, piles, wounds, &c. The press abounds in notices of its high character as a standard Medicine, and from the number we select the following from the Island City of the 12th September:

DALLEY'S MEDICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR.—An invention like this truly wonderful article, so full of virtues should be made known to the universe. Its cures, in many cases are absolutely beyond belief. For burns, scalds, sores, swellings, pains in the limbs of all kinds, cuts, wounds, and in every disease of the body, where it can be applied externally, it never fails to cure. A singular case came under our own observation. A friend in playing with a sharp steel pen, ran it into the palm of his hand so that it came out at the back and had to be extracted that way. The poisonous nature of the ink in the wound, as well as the instrument itself, caused the hand to swell dreadfully. Dalley's Pain Extractor was applied, and the next day the swelling had entirely gone down, the pain had left, and the wound was cured in a few days.

Important Caution.—Counterfeits of my Extractor are unobtainably published to the world in my name. Protect yourself, as you value life, and health, from these deceptions. I am, as every druggist in the United States knows, the sole inventor and proprietor of Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor; no other being has ever made or can make a grain of it, for no man living has the secret of the preparation but myself. ## HEALTH! HEALTH!

THOMSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP FOR FAR AND NEAR.

WOOD NATHAN.

THE ONLY CERTAIN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

Ashma, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain in the Side and Chest, Hoarseness, Catarrhs, Puffing of the Heart, Whooping Cough, Croup, Hives, Nervous Tremors, Liver complaint, Disordered Kidneys, and Affections generally of the Throat.

Of all the diseases incident to our climate, there is none so universal, and at the same time so insidious and fatal, as Consumption. In this country especially, Pulmonary Consumption is emphatically a scourge and in its resistless career sweeps over the land as a Destroyer, leaving low, wither'd and helpless survivors, the strongest and fairest of our race. Hitherto all efforts to arrest this dread disease have proved vain, and all that seemed within our power was at best alleviation of suffering, rendering somewhat smoother the certain progress to the tomb.

The proprietor, in offering this preparation to the public, would embrace the opportunity to state upon what grounds it puts forth its merits; and the reason which it founds its superior claims to the attention of the afflicted, that all who require its use may repose with confidence in its curative power. Since its first preparation he has had the pleasure of witnessing its happy results in numerous instances; but he was determined not to offer it to the public until he had become thoroughly convinced of its efficacy. Having such conviction, he now confidently offers it as a remedy without a parallel for the cure of PULMONARY CONSUMPTION and its kindred diseases.

Let the following speak for itself.

"I have used THOMSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF TAR & WOOD NATHAN, for some time in my practice, and have found it the most efficient remedy I have ever used in Consumptive cases, Chronic Catarrh, etc. when great irritability, with weakness of the pulmonary organs, existed. The rapidity with which it acts is greatly in its favor, where dyspnoea or oppression exists, when it is immediately relieved by it."

"In Pulmonary Consumption it can be used with confidence, being applicable to every form of that disease, and I consider it a medicine well worthy the attention of Physicians, and exempt from the imputation of emphysema."
